

SENIOR DAY
ANNUAL BARBOUR COUNTY FAIR
2018

"JAMMED PACKED WITH FAMILY FUN"

Senior day is a day full of enjoyable entertainment, fellowship, and memories for many Senior's in Barbour and surrounding Counties. Early morning you begin to see hustle and bustle under the big top of the John Loyd Entertainment Center. A variety of transportation will begin pulling up to reveal the valued contents. One by one several individuals emerge greeted by friendly, happy, participants of the exciting day. Vendor bags and door prize tickets are given to all seniors who attend for a chance to win periodically through out the day's events. Snacks and lunch are provided. Many area businesses provide info and stations to stop by and chat, educate, or to make you familiar with services they provide. You can have your blood pressure, blood sugar and many other things checked for free while enjoying the days festivities. Some may choose just to relax. Several in county plus out of county Long Term Care Facilities provide lunch. No reason for anyone to leave hungry. Plus lot's a drinks to quench your thirst from the warm summer day, and lastly what everyone wants to eat first to satisfy that sweet tooth, dessert! Lots of toe tapping, hand clapping, fancy dancing, instrument playing, musical entertainment. The day just wouldn't be the same without Woody Meaner M/C'ing on the mic. You can take a load off and go for a horse drawn buggy ride just like the good ole days, observe the grist mill grinding corn into meal, apple butter boiling over an open fire while discussing the difference of now and then. "Bee" adventurous, witness bee's buzzing, busily making honey under the watchful eye of the Keepers. Memories of reading, writing and arithmetic in that small, one room school house come fleeting back to life at the Mouse Run School House. Those who want to stretch their legs a bit and get a lil exercise can journey up the hill to view local canning, quilting, art, and exhibits by family, friends, and neighbors. Or maybe stroll to the barn to choose your pick of prize winning livestock. Come join us for Senior Day 2018 at the Barbour County Fair and find out how "Jammed Packed with Family Fun the fair can be.
